

10087NAT CERTIFICATE I in ACCESS TO WORK & TRAINING

INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTING

This course is designed for people who have no experience, or very little experience with using a computer.

Students will practice keyboard, word processing, internet and email skills along with identifying realistic education / employment options, enhancing communication skills and possibly articulate into further education and training levels at AQF levels I and II.

This course will be delivered at Meadowbank campus through the Outreach section.

Timetable

Monday – Time: 9:30am – 2:30pm

Meadowbank Campus

Commencing 8th Feb 2016

for 16 weeks

Bookings essential

For further Information, please contact:
Outreach Meadowbank Campus on 94721524

The Northern Sydney Institute, part of TAFE NSW
Meadowbank Campus
See Street, Meadowbank NSW 2114

- Students will be interviewed for eligibility into this course
- Program will run from July - November 2015
- You may be eligible for a funded place